Family Home Andrew and Clare Began this Process Trying To Build Almost the Impossible a Modern Three Bed Farmhouse for Just Seventy Thousand Pounds They Spent the Last Year Living in a Tiny Caravan with Their Entire Family Sometimes Bankrolling the Build on Credit Cards at the End Though Have They Been Able To Meet the Toughest Challenge of all To Build a Home That Feels Rooted in Its Site Here on the Farm Ten Months after They Started Building Peers and I Are Back To See How Successful They've Been Hi There I See You Back Here See Amazing Congratulations Thank You It's Done It Looks Incredibly Finished Don't Congratulate You and It Does Feel like It Sort Of Belongs Here Somehow I Mean that Was One of the Big Challenges Fear It Was It Was Always some How It Will Fit In on the Top of a Hill in the Middle of a Field Really Kendrys Decision To Cut Timber on Site and Take Control of His Own Building Has Had a Big Impact on of the House

This Is One of My Favorite Bits in this Room in the Whole Kind of Living Area It Has Worked So Beautifully I Really Love It and Really Pleased that It Kind Of We've Got the Separate Study but It Is One Big Area Tell Me How Could You Actually Cost To Do this Scaffold Board Sir About Five Pounds Reclaimed 300 Pounds of the Whole Lot Probably and It's Much Cheaper than It Would Be to To Build a Tedious White Wall and What It Does Is Also Reduced the Effective Length of this Corridor the Corridor Has Also Been Shortened by Moving the Master Bedroom Door the Plan Getting out of the Caravan Has Been a Real Milestone It Was a Huge Relief To Move To Actually Be Able To Get In and out of Bed without Passion Oh a Damn Pool
